

Meet the GoGo On Hold Team

Troy Hynam (sales/voice over/scripting and editing)

Troy has been in the electronic media industry since 1992, working initially as a news reporter with the Prime, GWN and the Seven network. Troy started up Go Go On Hold in 1998 making corporate videos and radio and TV commercials and then ultimately On Hold Messages. The business started in Broome Western Australia and then after 6 years headed south to Bunbury. As well as providing quality on hold messages to customers all over the country, Troy continues to read the sport on the Prime/GWN nightly news at 5:30. Troy is Married to his gorgeous wife Maree and two amazing children Indiana and Cassius.

Luke Gray ( editing scripting, operations)

Luke and Troy have been working as partners since 2002. Prior to the successful partnership and friendship luke was working as a breakfast radio announcer. His professional career has included stints with southern cross broadcasting and the Maquarie group. Lukes first passion is editing and has been creatively editing TV and audio for the past five years. Want a sound effect/perfectly recorded voice-over or sweet sounding On Hold Music track ? Then Luke Gray's your man. Luke has a beautiful wife Melissa and tow gorgeous little girls matilda and Anderson.

Maree Cullinan ( scripting/editing/ voice overs)

Maree has been broadcasting television since 1991. After achieving a double major in Journalism in Melbourn Maree has worked extensively throughout Australia with the 10 network, ABC and Prime network. It is from this journalism background that Maree has developed the art of script writing. As well as providing creative On hold Message scripts, Maree also edits and provides voice over talent.